Dear James Harrison / Dublin: y<sup>e</sup> 10: of y<sup>e</sup> 7th mo: 1686 my ancient and well beloved friend and Bro. in the Covenant of everlasting Love, and Life I dearly salute thee, and cordial greet thee, in the Armes of my heavenly fathers Love - which flows forth, at this time towards thee, and thy dear wife, whom I love dearly Love in the Lord for your father and motherly Care which hath bene, and is, I believe for large extended unto me, Cannot be forgotten whilst I have a day well draw friends, much might be said upon this account for my heart is full, off the Love of the Lord towards you - but I know, you Can read me, in that which is eternall, which is our all for and Land, god Blessed for ever, who hath made us partakers, and fellow feelers, one of another to him you are bound, to express, glory to his name for ever and now dear hearts my Love is with you, and my life is bound up with you, and I Cannot, the Comfortable times and seasons, of the Lords Love and mercies, which we have joyed together, and yet I am not without hopes, but we may enjoy one another again, in the Lords appointed time and season, for I have some Drawings forwards these parts, I have bene through this nation, and have had good friends and friends are generally well, and meetings large, and full as all in England, as I have an account, lately from London, I intend the Lord will to go towards Cork, about two weeks hence, to see for shipping to wards Barbados or Jamaica, I should be glad to hear from thee, I have written to thee, and y<sup>e</sup> 11th since I saw you, first from Barbados: then from England, and again account, 3. from Holland, 4. from England again, 5. from Ireland first when I came over, and now by dear the winne, and yet have not had a line from thee, but only from y<sup>e</sup> friends, and that was yester day, by way of Barbados, for I hope this will come to hand, and if this would have me to do any thing for thee, direct to Joseph Bodon in Bridge street Barbados, for with my dear Love to all friends, and brethren in the holy food of Life, in whom we have all Rest and grace and are one anothers joy and Crown in the Lord, and in him alone, I dearly salute you all, and bid you fare well Elinor Harrison Remembers her Love to thee who am thy friend and Bro. and thy wife now kindly, whom I now in the fellow ship of the gospel am, at husband is in England her sister Margaret is here who Remembers her Love to thee and thy wife

To

James Harrison
Ducks.

My dear Sir,
I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 2nd inst. in relation to the purchase of a quantity of ducks for the use of the Navy. I am very glad to hear that you are so desirous to procure a good article, and I am sure that the ducks which I have the honor to send you by the next ship will be found to be of the best quality. I have also the pleasure to inform you that I have been directed to send you a quantity of ducks of the same quality, which I have the honor to enclose to you by the same ship. I am, Sir, very respectfully, Your obedient servant,
Roger Longworth
